Outside Employment

I support the HCPC with occasional fitness to practice hearings as a Registrant Operating Department Practitioner panel member. All HCPC partners are paid a modest fee plus reasonable expenses on a self employment basis and as such any work undertaken is performed in my own time. Clearly, any involvement in a hearing/case that related to an ODP or any staff member from this trust, as well as any relation to service users of the trust would preclude me from being involved. To support fairness, impartiality and prevent any miscarriage of justice the HCPC have an equally clear policy on conflicts of interest that I of course abide by. Finally, it is essential that Registered Healthcare Professionals support the regulatory process in protecting the public, professionals and public confidence in the professions. I am fortunate to be able to do this on a paid basis.

Melanie Griffiths I provide back up clinical advisory cover for Labco, Huthwaite laboratory when the primary clinical cover is unavailable e.g. on holiday/sick I am available on my personal telephone to answer queries regarding biochemistry results from their customers. To date I have not provided any cover but this would be done outside of working hours(evening) at SFH and only applicable a few weeks of the year as the primary cover post holder does the vast majority of the work and is contactable most of the time. The demand for clinical cover is limited as the lab is only operational two days per week and my time commitment would probably be less than a day /year My role in providing back up cover enables Lab co to fulfil CPA requirement regarding robust clinical cover for the service i.e. back up

Madeley	Alexander	Specialist Clinical Pharmacist	Loyalty Interests	This fit more with the description of an indirect interest but that option was not available. I am a shareholder in my father's company, a consultancy for the pharmaceutical industry in matters of drug development. I have not been responsible for any payment or recommendations for any products for which he has had a financial interest in. At present I am not aware of any drugs he has been working on to have been directly marketed to this hospital since my start of employment, as most are in earlier stages of development. I occasionally provide clinical information accessible by any member of my profession and I have received a dividend this year as a shareholder of this company. Both of my parents also have shares in a broad number of pharmaceutical companies. Because of the breadth of their portfolios, most of the new drugs marketed and approved for use within the hospital could lead to their shares increasing. I am still financially supported in part by my parents and any financial benefit to them will invariably lead to an indirect benefit to myself.	2018-03-31
