We are sorry for your loss

The staff of the Emergency Department would like to offer their sympathy and understanding to you on your recent bereavement.

Whether this was sudden and unexpected, or had been anticipated for some time, the death of a relative or friend may be an event that is hard to come to terms with.

You may experience overwhelming feelings, which may be frightening and difficult to understand.

Bereavement Centre

Staff at the centre will help you following the death of a loved one.

They assist with:

- Getting a death certificate
- Formally registering the death
- Referral of a death to the Coroner.

You will need to call them so that they can take essential details first before they meet you. Calling them the day after the death is best.

If they are not available when you call, you can leave a voicemail message and they will call you back shortly after.

Please don't visit them without an appointment. If you do you could have a lengthy wait to see someone, and they would not wish to cause you any unnecessary additional distress at very a difficult time.

Their telephone number is 01623 622515, extension 4189 or 4190.
